

The University of Denver is grateful to Trustee and alumnus Ed Anderson and his wife, Linda Cabot, for generously providing the naming gift for the Anderson Academic Commons.

- 1 The Jordon and Essie Perlmutter and Family Lending Services Desk provides help locating and checking out books and materials.
- 2 The Digital Media Center is a brand-new service to DU, serving as a digital media editing facility with equipment, software and staff support.
- 3 The Archibald M. and Helen M. Crossley Research Center provides expert research help to students, faculty, and staff at any stage of the research process.
- 4 The University Technology Services Help Center is staffed by specialized technicians who diagnose and repair hardware and software issues for students, faculty and staff.
- 5 The Computer-Equipped Seating area has individual workspaces with more than 80 PCs and more than 30 Macs available for student/patron use.
- 6 The Virginia Herold Research Instruction Room serves thousands of students each year with classes and workshops in navigating the abundant resources of the University Library, including nearly 1,000 databases.
- 7 The Math Center provides drop-in assistance for Algebra, Trigonometry, Business Calculus, and Calculus I-III classes, including homework review and help preparing for exams.
- 8 The Shopneck Family Writing Center offers one-on-one consultations, providing writers comprehensive and collaborative advice on writing.
- 9 The Chan Classroom funded by the Boettcher Foundation is used by the Writing Program faculty to teach writing skills across all academic disciplines.
- 10 The Special Events Room can seat 200 people for academic events and presentations by students and faculty. When not in use for an event, the space is set with tables and chairs as an open study area.
- 11 The Front Porch Café, made possible by the generosity of Doug and Mary Scrivner, offers breakfast, lunch and dinner, seating 70 inside and 50 on the porch, featuring the Shopneck Hearth, rocking chairs, and a display of current periodicals and newspapers.
- 12 The Frederic C. and Jane M. Hamilton Atrium allows natural light to flood the main and upper levels of the Anderson Academic Commons. Low shelves display the library's newest books.
- 13 Bookbindings recognize donors who generously gave $250 or more to the Anderson Academic Commons.
- A Group study room funded by Professor James Griesemer and Catherine Stoner Fox.
